Family House for Sale in Vácduka – Quiet Location, Large Plot

A 148 m² structurally completed family house is for sale in a quiet, paved street in Vácduka. The property is an ideal choice for those who would like to avoid demolition work and prefer to finish a modernized house with solid structural foundations according to their own needs and taste.

Plot features

The spacious 2,398 m² plot has direct access to a forest, with the end of the garden bordered by a wooded area, ensuring privacy and a peaceful environment.

Due to its size and zoning (Lke-1 classification, 30% buildability), the plot can be subdivided, offering additional long-term possibilities.

About the house

Construction of the Ytong brick house began several years ago. After a longer pause, the building underwent significant preservation and modernization works in 2025.

The following improvements were completed during the renovation:

- Roof: The entire roof structure was fully renovated with new roofing and completed internal insulation.
- Windows and doors: New insulated plastic windows and doors were installed.
